

John Liu and other elected representatives to attend the completion ceremony for Jewish-color window

Sing Tao Global Network's www.stnn.cc

2011-12-19

[\[Print \]](#) | [\[link in email \]](#) | [\[Close \]](#)

(From left) Shita Stravinsky, Michael Weisser, John Liu, Gu Yaming.

"Sing Tao Daily" reported: Flushing Avenue at Kai Xinna Jewish (Free Synagogue of Flushing) is a national and historical landmarks of New York, the church has received community support and funding maintenance color window, three elected representatives of Flushing Yesterday (18) to attend the completion ceremony of the window color, I hope the church and the public can hold more community events, to show the characteristics of multi-cultural Flushing.

Judaism will be held at Flushing yesterday color window into the ceremony and concert, Rabbi Michael Weisser said he would work three years ago in Flushing, fall in love with this place, the whole New York City the best place. He said with a smile, Flushing Jewish in the "Beijing and Seoul intersection point", he also learned to Flushing after a number of Spanish, this place has a lot of people from different traditions, but also share many universal values.

New York City Comptroller John Liu said that he started at age 5 in Flushing growth, then we are often similar in Flushing Jewish gatherings. The New York City Council Guys Ming on the mean, next to the church and community organizations a lot of community activities are held on weekdays, they slowly mix with the community because the community multi-cultural background, and thus open to all ethnic groups to participate. New York State Senator Shita Stravinsky (Toby Starvisky) by reiterating Flushing is the birthplace of American religious freedom, Flushing Jewish people is a copolymer of the place.

Flushing Development Center for Fu Heming said the Flushing Jewish Center and at 17:00 on the 20th, Flushing Library will be bright for the annual lighting ceremony to welcome the public to attend.